

Answer Key

In chapter 5 of Mark and chapter 8 of Luke, we can read about a man who searched for help for his 12-year-old daughter. The man's name was Jairus. He chose to go to Jesus to ask for help. On the way to Jairus' house, a sick woman took a chance to get close to Jesus. She touched his clothes and immediately was healed. She had been sick for such a long time. Jesus stopped to talk to the woman, but Jairus wanted Him to rush to his house. What a shame! When they arrived, the girl was dead. But Jesus touched her and raised her from the dead. Her parents were astonished! Jesus charged them to tell no one what had happened. Jesus was not rich, but He gave others things that were much more valuable than money. He treated everyone with respect and charity. Jesus loved children. He was a great Teacher.
