

Who Said...?

Look you are old, and your sons do not walk in your ways. Now make us a king to judge us like all the nations.

Heed the voice of the people in all that they say to you; for they have not rejected you, but they have rejected Me, that I should not reign over them.

He will take a tenth of your grain and your vintage, and give it to his officers and servants.

Heed their voice and make them a king.

Please take one of the servants with you, and arise, go and look for the donkeys.

Come, let us return, lest my father cease caring about the donkeys and become worried about us.

Look, I have here at hand one-fourth of a shekel of silver.

There he is, the man of whom I spoke to you. This one shall reign over My people.

Please tell me, where is the seer's house?

But you stand here awhile, that I may announce to you the word of God.

Draw your sword, and thrust me through with it, lest these uncircumcised men come and thrust me through and abuse me.

The Lord sent me to anoint you king over His people.

I greatly regret that I have set up Saul as king.

Be quiet! And I will tell you what the Lord said to me last night.

Surely, a distressing spirit from God is troubling you.
