Stephen was one of seven Christian men chosen to help widows.

Christians met near the Temple and at houses everyday to learn more about Jesus and how to live for Him.

A group of Jews argued with Stephen when he was teaching in the synagogue.
But God was helping him with everything he said and did,
so they couldn't prove anything that he said was wrong.

The Jews were jealous of Stephen. So they decided to arrest him.

Stephen was taken to a Jewish court where he was accused of blasphemy.

Sequencing Game

After Stephen gave his speech in the Jewish court, the Jews clearly rejected Jesus and started persecuting His Church.

Stephen told the crowd that they were stubborn and murderers.

The crowd of people dragged Stephen outside of the city and stoned him to death.

As Stephen was dying, he asked God to forgive the people.

Persecution of the Church began around Jerusalem.
Many of the Christians left Jerusalem, but everywhere they went,
they taught others about Jesus.
